Regarding claim 1, the prior art of the record fails to show or fairly suggest a still video camera connectable to a printer provided with a printing operation start mechanism that activates a printing operation, comprising said image data generating processor being activatable, in said photography mode, in accordance with a first operation by selectively activating one of said image data generating start mechanism and a printing operation start mechanism associated with said printer, so that said still video camera carries out said photographing operation, said reproduction mode being automatically set after said photographing operation is performed, so that an activation of said image data generating start mechanism causes said printer to carry out said printing operation.

Claims 2-6 are allowable for the reason given respect to claim 1.

Regarding claim 8, the prior art of the record fails to show or fairly suggest a printer connectable to a still video camera, said printer comprising a printing operation start mechanism activates said printing processor, said still video camera being activatable by said printing operation start mechanism in said photography mode to perform said photographing operation, said printing processor being activatable, in said reproduction mode, by an activation of an image data generating start mechanism provided in said still video camera to perform said photographing operation, an operation of said image data generating start mechanism automatically setting said still video camera to said reproduction mode after said photographing operation is performed.

Claims 10-15 are allowable for the reason given respect to claim 8.

Regarding claim 16, the prior art of the record fails to show or fairly suggest a camera-printer system, comprising said photographing operation being performed in accordance with a first reproduction mode being automatically set after said photographing operation is performed so that an activation of said release switch causes said image to be printed by said printer.

Claims 17-18 are allowable for the reason given respect to claim 16.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
